Eco Tips for more sustainable living

Start composting! You can compost lots of things from dead flowers and plant-based kitchen scraps to shredded paper and used coffee grounds. It's remarkably easy to do, helps to reduce waste going to landfill, and provides a nutrient boost for your garden.

Notices

Festival of Joy We hope you all enjoyed the wonderful festival of joy 2026. We are away for two weeks so unable to personally thank you all but be assured that everyone's service and contribution was enormously appreciated and needed. With the holidays upon us we are eager to gather all your thoughts and experiences before they are forgotten. To that end, please email lizholbird@gmail.com with your delights and observations. Thank you all, Liz Holbird

Bereavement Café the next Cafe will be on Friday 14th August at 10.00am for 10.30am.

Alpha our next course begins on Monday 28th September. An opportunity to explore life's big questions. Who could you invite?

Hugh Le Fanu's funeral will be at here on Tuesday 18th August at 3pm. All welcome.

Mandy Rattue's funeral will be at here on Wednesday 19th August at 1pm. All welcome.

Wanted Volunteer Drivers for Care in Haslemere to provide transport for local residents to medical appointments. Call 01428 652505 or email carehsllduty@gmail.com

ChurchSuite If you haven't yet updated your contact details or haven't received an invitation to ChurchSuite, please email Rebecca in the office, email address above. We are planning to launch it in September.

Haslemere Foodbank There is still great demand for the Foodbank. Please continue to donate in the box in the church porch accessible when the church is open. Thank you for your support.

Our Junior Church and Youth leaders are taking a break over the summer. There will be activities for children at the back of the church. The groups will be back in September.

Work in office There will be work being done to the church office next week involving repair and redecoration due to water damage. The office will be closed on Tuesday, but Rebecca will be working from home.

9.00 am Readings:

Colossians 3:12-17 (p. 1184)

Matthew 28:16-20 (p.1001)

9.00 am Hymns:

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness (552)

Great is thy faithfulness (249)

Please pray:

Children and Youth Worker Prayer: Dear God, thank you for all those who have worked with children and young people at St Alban's. Please bring a new Children and Youth Worker so that all ages might come to know Jesus. Amen.

Give thanks for an informative and inspiring visit from our Wycliffe Mission partner Theresa in May/June.

Pray for Papua New Guinea which is expecting a severe and widespread drought for the next 6 months, especially in the Highlands region where Theresa is based.

Give thanks for a restful break for Theresa in Australia on her way back to PNG.

For farmers who are severely affected by the drought.

Give thanks for the Festival of Joy and prayer for continued connections with those who came.

Giving at St. Alban's

You can give digitally to St. Alban's using the machine in church or use the QR code below. If you would like to give regularly by standing order, please contact Wendy - 07803 082648 or giving@stalbanshindhead.org.uk

Caring for Children - Please remember that parents are responsible for their children. Please do not allow them to go into the Oratory, the Vestry, the Link or the Hall unsupervised after the service.
